

SINGER & SONGWRITER SHARON MAY LINN

"Music is passion – Passion is music"

Sharon's personal motto since she began her carrier at the age of 17.

Born Dutch, raised in Italy and now based in Mallorca she's a real globetrotter and speaks fluently 4 languages.

Her first approach to music was thanks to her parents: classic rock, soul, funk, motown, classic symphonic music and west coast folk.

She moves over Jazz and Soul to Rock, from Disco to Electronic music, tributes amongst many divas Tina Turner, Aretha Franklin which brought her to develop a strong and powerful warm voice, and loves the Evergreen ballads.

Since the early nineties Sharon starts to be a major requested singer in Italian recording studios and she has now a large number of published songs.

In 1996 she faced the house music scene and began her experience as freestyle vocalist. After gaining some worldwide hits like Destination Calabria and Lil' Love, she performs nowadays as special entertaining guest in a large number of clubs over the whole globe with a smashing show thanks to a huge number of own projects.

In 2008 she became lead voice from the FPI Project, Italian house music group.

Currently she's living in Mallorca and beside her solo carrier and FPI Project shows all over the world, you can find her performing classic covers in solo, duo or trio, or with her band, in top stars hotels or luxury events.